

Orphan Spirit

What is an orphan spirit? It's a demonic spirit that invades a person's mind causing them a sense of abandonment from their past hurts and experiences. It attacks the mind and emotions of the individual suffering with abandonment, rejection, and great disappointment.

An orphan spirit attaches to a person who has experienced extreme rejection in their life. Once this spirit enters into a person it becomes a stronghold in their mind and remains there until a new foundational truth of the Word of God is formed. If this mental fortress is not corrected and torn down by the individual who accepts it, it will continue on to the next generation until someone stands in the gap and says no more.

An orphan spirit will lead you to believe that you are not worthy of love, peace, joy and will always come up in different situations and make you feel inferior to others. It will always make you believe everything negative about yourself and about your relationship with God (YHWH).

When we believe this spirit and it's lies we bow before his altars and submit under his authority. An orphan spirit will limit your capacity to understand your identity and purpose, you won't be able to maximize all that God has for you in your Kingdom purpose.

This is a prayer you can pray that will help you to become free from the stronghold of this spirit.

Also remember that you need to work hard on your thought life and the thought patterns connected to this spirit. This is a false mindset that does not line up with the truth in Gods Word. Please take the time to open your heart and get a revelation of God's love for you and change the direction of your bloodline back to fellowship with God. Allow him to heal and cleanse your heart.

PRAYER:

Father God (YHWH) I come before your throne of grace. I come to your trading floor now.

Abba Father I come to you with Yeshua (Jesus) as my advocate, protector and witness.

I want to bring to you this issue that I have today and I want to bring it to your Heavenly courtroom.

Help me to realize that I am struggling to connect with you in a healthy way because of the rejection that I have lived and experienced in my past. I ask you Abba Father to start the healing process that I so desperately need and cleanse out the things in my life that are holding me back from you and a deeper relationship with you. I want to repent of all these attributes connected to this ORPHAN SPIRIT _____ (name the list of attributes)

Help me to recognize the open doors to this spirit, help me to see and identify those things that are hindering my identity and purpose in you. Father forgive me for not being able to feel and receive your love, your unconditional love that you have for me. Forgive me for when I listened to the voice of this orphan spirit instead of listening to the voice of your Words. I ask that You will silence these voices that have been speaking to me, in the name of Yeshua. I ask you to forgive me for assuming that you are the same as other human beings, that have hurt me. Please help me overcome the orphan spirit! Yeshua please forgive me for embracing the attitudes and the actions, heart motives of an orphan spirit. I want to experience your love and heart's desire for me.

I want to declare

I BELONG TO YOU< I BELONG TO YOU, I BELONG TO YOU. NOW GOD

I break all soul ties that I have formed with an orphan spirit. I bind my body, heart and spirit to God's will and purpose for my life in Yeshua's name. ABBA I ask that you heal my mind, emotions, and my heart from the spirits of abandonment, rejection and fatherless. I break all soul ties with them, that have been formed in my mind and emotions from an orphan spirit. I ask Yeshua that You will break these altars now and that you will nullify any inner vow, covenant and agreement that I have made with this orphan spirit. Put the blood of YESHUA on the origin of where an orphan spirit came in my life.

I recognize and renounce and repent for an orphan spirit that has gained access and control over my life and bloodline and generational line. I break its power and control now by the power of the blood of Yeshua. I break the generational curse now and ask that You declare it void. I repent for my ancestors on my mother and father's side who participated with this spirit and believed its lies. I put the blood of Yeshua on the root where it came in at conception and in my mother's womb.

With power and authority from heaven I burn away that root, every branch connected to it and all residue from it. I declare it is broken now and cannot affect me or any future generations from this day forward.

ABBA please help me to have the heart and mindset of a son and daughter that belongs to You. As Your child help me to turn my heart, my intent and motives toward you Heavenly Father. Please reveal to me all areas of my body, soul and spirit that have been wounded. _____ (if you have revelation, put it in at this point)

I repent of them now in the name of Yeshua.
